PROSPECTUS. FOR THE FOURTH VOLUME OF THE MAGNOLIA.

THE December number closes the 3d volume of this periodical, and in calling the attention of our friends to a new volume, it is our happiness to state, that baving overcome, in some measure, the difficulties incident to the transfer of our work from the interior to this city, and other changes, we are now enabled to assure our subscribers that the "Magnolia," is placed upon a permanent foundationis circulation is established, and its continunnee secured. To effect this more certainly, one-half of the work has been disposed of under such terms and contracts as will essentially subserve its interests .-It will, henceforth, be issued in an enlarged form, baving a monthly addition of 16 pages, handsomely printed on superior paper, making, at the close of the year, a volume of nearly 800 double columed pages. It will be punctually issued, positive strangements to that effect have been made with the publisher, and the many hindrances which have hitherto impeded its progress having been overcome. In addition to the usual contributions from eminent writers the Editor has pleasure in saying, that he will be assisted in the literary department by some gentlemen whose aid will greatly enhance the value of the periodical, and impar additional interest to is pages. It is the desire of the Editor to make the 'Maguelia' a standard popular Magazine, and to accomplish this, he is determined to devote to it every energy, in order to mark it vorthy of the patronage of the friends of Southern literature. such he presents his claims, confident that the growing reputation of the work; and the peculiar advantages under which it will hereafter be issued, will fend them to sustain, by liberal subscriptions, a peri-
